Eva Schloss, is a trustee of the Anne Frank Educational Trust, an author of three books, and the subject of James Still's play, "And Then They Came for Me: Remembering the World of Anne Frank. Like her stepsister, Eva went into hiding in Holland during the holocaust, until she, along with her family was betrayed, captured, and sent to Auschwitz-Birkenau death camp.

Listen to a first hand account of the life of Anne Frank and the discovery and printing of her famed diary.
