“ Terri was no doubt a strong, beautiful, loving, kind, compassionate, confident, wise, dedicated, gracious, classy and could go hood on ya, God loving, authentic, true loving person. Sooo much more could me said about Terri! I will say, she LOVED TAYLOR with everything deep inside of her. She was profoundly proud of the young woman she was becoming. And yes, she too adored and loved Cory as well. I can hear her now, "guuurlll ain't this some stuff?" Gurl this, and girl that, and oh Jesus this, and oh Jesus that. I'm heartbroken in my flesh and in my spirit I rejoice because she is in her eternal home and we who love Jesus will one day join her forever. Until then, may God the Father of all comfort, comfort Taylor, Cory, her family,, friends and all who genuinely loved her. I love you my love. I miss you greatly. Your sista & friend!
